Selectboard Statement on the Death of David Dezendorf

On Friday, October 21st, David Dezendorf, a long time resident of Townshend, who was very active in town government, died in a tragic aviation accident in Keene, NH. David held numerous positions in town government. He served on the Selectboard, the Town School Board, as Emergency Management Director, the Fire Department, and on various committees. David's leadership and involvement will be missed.

Our condolences go out to the entire Dezendorf family. We are very sorry for your loss.
